

I feel like this would be "invasion of privacy". I do not wish to be bothered with these parties calling me all times of the day or night. My husband works 3rd shift and I work 1st shift. We enjoy our privacy since the no call list was started and we would wish to continue this privacy. Thank you.